THE TOWN OF TRADITION PRESENTS "SUNDAY SOUNDS"
Port St. Lucie Community Hosts Sunday Afternoons with Friends, Music

Tradition, Fla. (January 13, 2006) – A new tradition is beginning in the town that bears the name. On Sunday, Jan. 22, the Town of Tradition will host Sunday Sounds, a series of free concerts for community residents and the general public at the Lake Tradition Pavilion.

The concerts will be held most Sundays from 2 – 4 p.m., and are currently scheduled from Jan. 22 through Feb. 19, 2006. Visitors are encouraged to bring blankets and lawn chairs to enjoy the open-air concert; admission and parking are free.

The schedule of performers includes:

January

- 22 – Barracuda, a classic rock and roll trio
- 29 – Bobby & The Blisters, a Jazz variety group

February

- 5 – No concert scheduled, Superbowl Sunday
- 12 – Green Swing, a quartet performing big band and swing classics
- 19 – The Island Kings, performs Jimmy Buffet, reggae and Caribbean-style music

Everyone is welcome to enjoy the newest tradition at the Town of Tradition's Lake Tradition Pavilion, located just off Tradition Parkway in Port St. Lucie, Fla., just west of the I-95 interchange at Exit 118. For additional information please visit www.traditionfl.com or call (772) 340-3500.
